

Chocaholics

So, obviously we can't see into your front room, so we rely on you not to cheat and take this quiz very seriously!!!

Pen and paper ready, off you go!

1. What chocolate bar was advertised as during World War II as giving war time volunteers 'two hours of endurance capacity'?
2. Which bar was advertised in 1936 with the slogan 'Don't be angry, have a bar of chocolate'?
3. Chocolate Dragees was the original name for what popular confectionery drops?
4. What did a Mars a day help you do?
5. What was advertised as 'Full of Eastern Promise'?
6. What should you do with a Penguin?
7. Snickers were originally called what?
8. 'Sure is a mighty chew' was the marketing line for a bar named after the resident of an American state?
9. Who should you thank if it's Friday?
10. If you like a lot of chocolate on your biscuit what should you do?
11. What bar has a hazelnut in every bite?
12. What is Lighter than ordinary chocolate ?
13. What was the original name for Starbursts?
14. Which bar can you take it easy with?

15. Which chunky bar was marketed with the controversial line 'It's not for girls!'?

The Answers:

1. Chocolate Crisp – forerunner of Kit Kat
2. Aero
3. Smarties
4. Work, rest and play
5. Fry's Turkish Delight
6. P-p-pick up a Penguin
7. Marathon
8. Texan
9. Crunchie
10. Join our Club
11. Topic
12. Maltesers
13. Opal Fruits
14. Cadbury's Caramel
15. Yorkie Bar

How many did you get right? All of them? Half? Why not share your results with us -